The 2022 ASA, CSSA, and SSSA elections for president-elect, division/section chairs, and boards of directors were completed in April. In addition, changes to the ASA and CSSA bylaws were approved, which added a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Member-at-Large to the Boards of Directors.

The following individuals were selected as the incoming president-elect of their Society:

- ASA President-Elect: Kristen Veum, USDA-ARS Columbia, MO
- CSSA President-Elect: Kimberly Garland-Campbell, USDA-ARS Pullman, WA
- SSSA President-Elect: Michael Thompson, Iowa State University

Full election results are posted to the Society websites at agronomy.org/about-society/governance, crops.org/about-society/governance, and soils.org/about-society/governance.

Seeking Nominations

Interested in running for office, or know someone who is? Inform a division or section chair by 1 November—self-nominations are encouraged! The Societies seek diverse and inclusive candidates for all leadership positions. Questions? Contact Director of Governance Sara Uttech at 608-268-4948 or Send Message.
