Register! If you haven't already done so, there's still time to join us 7–10 November in Salt Lake City, UT, or virtually, whichever is more comfortable for you.

The virtual option is a limited version of our in-person meeting and includes access to recordings of the opening keynote, the ASF lectureship series, and internationally contributed oral and poster presentations.

The Societies are offering a no-risk guarantee: full registration refunds are available. Early bird registration rates end 1 October, and standard registration rates end 15 October, so register today!

Add tours and workshops to your registration. Plan now to take advantage of these amazing tours and valuable workshops.

Reserve your hotel room. Conference rates and rooms are guaranteed through 15 October; check out acsmeetings.org/hotels to see what is available.

Plan your travel. Visit acsmeetings.org/travel for more information. For up-to-date safety information, visit acsmeetings.org/faqs/#COVID-19.

Download the app. Search "SciSoc Mtg" in your app store, and create an individualized schedule, send messages to meet up with your peers, and get real-time updates.

Win! One of two $1,000 cash drawings will be awarded! Be present in the exhibit hall Monday and Tuesday at 5:15 pm to win. All paid attendees (excluding guest registrations) will automatically be entered. You must be present to win and must claim prize within three minutes after name is drawn.

See you in Salt Lake City or virtually in November![1]
