

Science Societies

October webinars: Career lessons from women leaders—and more

October 5, 2026

The confidence journey: Self-advocacy and assertiveness for women leaders

Tuesday, October 13, 11 am–12 pm CDT

Hear about career-defining moments from our panel of leaders: Speakers will describe their experience, including both successes and setbacks, and the lessons learned along their journey.

Gain practical knowledge for growing as a leader in your career: This is the second webinar in the 2026 Stepping into Your Power series hosted by the ASA, CSSA, and SSSA Women in Science Committee. Gain practical knowledge, relatable perspectives, and actionable ideas for growing as leaders in your career.

Join the conversation: All are welcome to join this candid conversation and learn from the experiences of accomplished women across diverse professional paths.

Presented by Megan Dickens, Bayer Crop Sciences (left); and Dr. Diane Rowland, University of Maine (right)

Register

Learn more

More October webinars

Policy in motion: Get informed, involved, and connected at Science Societies

October 15

Stay informed on the latest federal policy issues impacting food and agriculture while learning how ASA, CSSA, and SSSA support science-based advocacy.

Register

Learn more

The root of the matter: A biostimulant approach to yield

October 29

Explore the potential of non-microbial biostimulants, including liquid biochar, humic substances, and seaweed extracts, to support plant growth and soil health, and learn how these technologies can enhance crop performance.

Register

Learn more

Text © . The authors. CC BY-NC-ND 4.0. Except where otherwise noted, images are subject to copyright. Any reuse without express permission from the copyright owner is prohibited.