Elevate Your Voice, Shape Your Future!

Cast Your Vote in the ASA, CSSA, and SSSA Elections—March 4 to April 4

March 15, 2024

Your voice matters, and now is the time to make it heard! Embrace the opportunity to influence the future of our Societies by participating in the upcoming elections for President-Elect, Board of Directors, and Division/Section Chairs-Elect.

Explore the candidates, read their inspiring bios, and cast your vote at:

Diverse Perspectives, Inclusive Leadership

We actively seek leaders from all walks of life. If you've ever dreamed of making a difference, consider running for office in the future. Self-nominations are not just welcomed but encouraged! Connect with a Division or Section Chair this fall and let your aspirations blossom: acsmeetings.org/contacts.

Be a Leader, Uphold Excellence

Aspiring leaders are expected to adhere to the highest standards. Familiarize yourself with our Code of Conduct, Statement of Ethics, and DEI Statement on the Governance webpage:

Terms Are Three Years—Start Yours on January 1

Seize the chance to shape the direction of our Societies. Terms begin on January 1 of the following year, ensuring a lasting impact on the future of the agronomic, crop, and soil sciences.

Questions?

If you have questions, reach out to Director of Governance Sara Uttech (608‑268‑4948 or suttech@sciencesocieties.org).

Let’s create a future where every voice is valued and every vote shapes the path forward. Your involvement matters. Vote and pave the way for a brighter tomorrow!
