Science Societies

Dues waiver for unemployed

April 14, 2025

If you are currently unemployed, you may be eligible to have your Society membership dues waived. During this difficult time, we still want you to have access to vital career, professional development, networking resources as well as access to journals, member news, meeting discounts, and exclusive learning opportunities.

For more information and an application, email Member Services or call them at 608-273-8080 for more information and an application.

Text © . The authors. CC BY-NC-ND 4.0. Except where otherwise noted, images are subject to copyright. Any reuse without express permission from the copyright owner is prohibited.